Legal System Fundamentals (India)

The Indian legal system is based on the Constitution of India, which is the supreme law of the land.

It consists of three main branches: Legislature, Executive, and Judiciary.

The Judiciary ensures justice and interprets the Constitution.

The Supreme Court is the highest court, followed by High Courts and District Courts.

The legal system protects fundamental rights and maintains law and order in society.